

Welcome to Sitges

Hello and welcome to our Sitges 247 website we hope you like it!

Our site is a local, independent, mobile-friendly site full of reliable, useful and up-to-date information, including Sitges news, reviews, events, festivals and many other attractions throughout the year!

Whether you live here, are passing through on business or maybe planning a holiday we will try to help you get the best from your time here, with complete listings for all the year's major events - from Carnival to Gay Pride, Corpus Christi to The International Film Festival and many, many other festivals and celebrations.

Sitges - sun and sea so much more!

Lying between the mountains and the sea on the Spanish Mediterranean coast, about 35 km south of Barcelona, Sitges enjoys a microclimate ensuring 300 sunny days a year which makes it a popular tourist destination throughout the year.

In addition to its excellent weather, there are also 16 beautiful sandy beaches, which are clean, safe and ideal for bathers of all ages. The town's central beaches also have dedicated 'chiringuitos' (beach bars) toilets, lifeguards and showers - so you can easily spend the whole day there!

Famous in Spain and internationally for its festivals, events and blend of ancient and modern attractions, Sitges proudly preserves its traditions and rich heritage whilst embracing change, progress and new ideas. This helps to make it a popular weekend destination for Barcelona families seeking to enjoy its relaxed pace of life, fresh sea air and sunny sky - as often although the weather may be cloudy in the Barcelona the skies here will often be crystal clear!

With a history dating back at least 2000 years, the town is very proud and protective of its history and customs. It has a beautifully conserved old town featuring white-washed stone walls, ancient cobblestone alleyways and a range of architecture spanning centuries radiating out from the iconic Parish church of Sant Bartomeu and Santa Tecla.

A Destination Throughout the Year!

Sitges offers a wide range of different activities, festivals and exhibitions, actively supported by the local council and communities to support, maintain and promote local culture and traditions and at the same time ensure visitors a modern, vibrant, and hospitable tourist destination.

It's no surprise the town enjoys a varied and rich cultural agenda; a reputation as the European Carnival party destination, is recognised as a premier Gay resort and is also the home of the Sitges International film festival. However that's just the tip of the iceberg! There is so much more going on!

In addition the town also has an enormous range of traditional and cosmopolitan cafes, bars, restaurants and clubs that cater for every taste, whim and craving!

Here you can choose from traditional Catalan cuisine, Spanish delights, Japanese Sushi, Italian Pizzas & Pastas; American Grills; Tapas Bars, Bodegas, Korean, Chinese, French, Fish, BBQ, Beach bars, Cabaret, Roof top restaurants; Terraces, Gardens, Bakers, Grills and Salad Bars... High end, low end... no end - the choices are endless and changes all the time! And with an extensive pedestrianised town centre you can leave the car at home!

With first class road and rail links to Barcelona and beyond and convenient international connections only a 25 minute drive away via Barcelona International Airport Sitges has never been closer.

Your Website

We created this site as a tribute to Sitges and also highlight what the town has to offer. We hope by using our site you will get the most out of your time here - if you are here for just a day, or hopefully a little longer!

We have tried to give you a taste of our beautiful town, and make sure that when you are here you have the information you need at your fingertips - with a website that works well for desktops, tablets and smartphones.

Well what are you waiting for? Get out there and start discovering your Sitges - we'll be right

Replace with your logo

sitges247.com
Information, Events & Festivals
<http://www.sitges247.com>

here when you need us!

Sitges247.com Team

April 2014